This brief provides labor market information about Office Assistant Occupations to assist the San Diego and Imperial Counties Community Colleges with program development and strategic planning. Office Assistant Occupations include “Computer User Support Specialists,” “Customer Service Representatives,” “Office Clerks, General,” “Secretaries and Administrative Assistants, Except Legal, Medical, and Executive,” and “Word Processors and Typists.” According to available labor market information, Office Assistant Occupations in San Diego County have a labor market demand of 7,368 annual job openings (while average demand for a single occupation in San Diego County is 245 annual job openings), and 23 institutions supply 2,637 awards for these occupations, suggesting that there is a supply gap in the labor market. However, entry-level wages are below the living wage for most occupations, except “Computer User Support Specialists.” This brief recommends that the colleges proceed with caution when developing a new program for these occupations, but supports a program modification because 1) there is a supply gap; 2) there is a high number of annual job openings; but 3) entry-level wages are below the living wage for most occupations. The colleges should note that the typical entry-level education for these occupations is a high school education or equivalent.

Introduction

This report provides labor market information in San Diego County for the following occupational codes in the Standard Occupational Classification (SOC)¹ system:

- Computer User Support Specialists (SOC 15-1232): Provide technical assistance to computer users. Answer questions or resolve computer problems for clients in person, via telephone, or electronically. May provide assistance concerning the use of computer hardware and software, including printing, installation, word processing, electronic mail, and operating systems.
- Customer Service Representatives (SOC 43-4051): Interact with customers to provide basic or scripted information in response to routine inquiries about products and services. May handle and resolve general complaints. Excludes individuals whose duties are primarily installation, sales, repair, and technical support.
- Office Clerks, General (SOC 43-9061): Perform duties too varied and diverse to be classified in any specific office clerical occupation, requiring knowledge of office systems and procedures. Clerical duties may be assigned in accordance with the office procedures of individual establishments and may include a combination of answering telephones, bookkeeping, typing or word processing, office machine operation, and filing.
- Secretaries and Administrative Assistants, Except Legal, Medical, and Executive (SOC 43-6014): Perform routine administrative functions such as drafting correspondence, scheduling appointments, organizing and maintaining paper and electronic files, or providing information to callers.
- Word Processors and Typists (SOC 43-9022): Use word processor, computer, or typewriter to type letters, reports, forms, or other material from rough draft, corrected copy, or voice recording. May perform other clerical duties as assigned.

For the purpose of this report, these occupations are referred to as Office Assistant Occupations.

Projected Occupational Demand

Between 2021 and 2026, Office Assistant Occupations are projected to decrease by 713 net jobs or one percent (Exhibit 1a). Employers in San Diego County will need to hire 7,368 workers annually to fill new jobs and backfill jobs due to attrition caused by turnover and retirement, for example.

Exhibit 1b disaggregates the projected number of jobs change by occupation. “Office Clerks, General” are projected to have the most labor market demand between 2021 and 2026, with 2,637 annual job openings.

Demand vs. Supply

Comparing labor demand (annual openings) with labor supply¹⁰ suggests that there is a supply gap for these occupations in San Diego County, with 7,368 annual openings and 2,637 awards. Comparatively, there are 93,831 annual openings in California and 9,890 awards, suggesting that there is also a supply gap across the state¹¹ (Exhibit 5).

Exhibit 5: Labor Demand (Annual Openings) Compared with Labor Supply (Average Annual Awards)

	Demand (Annual Openings)	Supply (Total Annual Average Supply)	Supply Gap or Oversupply
San Diego	7,368	2,637	4,731
California	93,831	9,890	83,941

Please note: This is a basic analysis of supply and demand of labor. The data does not include workers currently in the labor force who could fill these positions or workers who are not captured by publicly available data. This data should be used to discuss the potential gaps or oversupply of workers; however, it should not be the only basis for determining whether or not a program should be developed.

¹⁰ Labor supply can be found from two different sources: EMSI or the California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office MIS Data Mart. EMSI uses CIP codes while MIS uses TOP codes. Different coding systems result in differences in the supply numbers.

Online Job Postings

This report analyzes not only historical and projected (traditional LMI) data, but also recent data from online job postings (real-time LMI). Online job postings may provide additional insight about recent changes in the labor market that are not captured by historical data. Between 2011 and 2021, there was an average of 17,067 online job postings per year for Office Assistant Occupations in San Diego County (Exhibit 7). Please note that online job postings do not equal labor market demand; demand is represented by annual job openings (see Exhibit 1b). Employers may post a position multiple times for various reasons, such as increasing the pool of applicants, for example.
